O Lord, thou hast me search'd and known.
My foot - steps, and my ly - ing down,
For in my tongue, be - fore I speak,
Be - hind, be - fore, thou hast be - set,

Thou know'st my sit - ting down,
thou com - pas - sest al - ways;
not an - y word can be,
and laid on me thine hand.

And ri - sing up; yea, all my thoughts
 Thou al - so most en - tire - ly art
 But al - to - get - her, lo, O Lord,
 Such know - ledge is too strange for me,

af - ar to thee are known.
 ac - quaint with all my ways.
 it is well known to thee.
 too high to un - der - stand.
