John Wyeth, Respository of Sacred Music II, 1813

♩ = 80

Be - cause of those mine en - em - ies,
For in their mouth there is no truth,
O God, des - troy them; let them be
But let all joy that trust in thee,
For, Lord, un - to the righ - teous man

Lord, in thy righ - teous - ness
their in - ward part is ill;
by their own coun - sel quell'd:
and thou still wilt make thy shout - ing noise;
thou wilt bless - ing yield:

Do thou me lead; do thou thy way
 Their throat's an o - pen sep - ul - chre,
 Them for their man - y sins cast out,
 For them thou sav'st; let all that love
 With fa - vour thou wilt com - pass him

make straight be - fore my face.
 their tongue doth flat - ter still.
 for they 'gainst thee re - bell'd.
 thy name in thee re - joice.
 a - bout, as with a shield.
