A - rise, and dis - ap - point my foe,
From men, which are thy hand, O Lord, Whose bel - ly for with thy treas - ure hid
But as for me, I thine own face and from thou in cast world - ly fill'st:

righ - teous - ness
him - ly they - teous - ness down, men - child - ness O me - ren - will Lord: save, have see;

My soul save from the wic - ked man,
 Which on - ly in this pres - ent life
 In plen - ty; of their goods the rest
 And with thy like - ness, when I wake, the man which is thy sword.

 their part to and their por - tion have.
 they to sat - is - fy'd shall ren - leave.
 I shall be.
